The Friends of the Waynesboro Public Library at Work

- The Friends provide materials and supplies for the wide array of children's and adult programs at the library
- The Friends provide financial support to equip and furnish the library and to acquire items ranging from large print books for the library's main collection to an Xbox for the Jean Custin Young Adult Room
- The Friends provide the funds needed for special programs such as Mini-Golf, Halloween Haunted House and the library centennial celebration in 2016
- The Friends provide up to a thousand or more hours of volunteer time each year in support of the library
- The Friends raised and contributed $221,000 for major library renovations in 2012
- The Friends have been recognized by the Virginia Library Association with annual Friends Achievement Awards
- The Friends have been recognized with appreciation by Waynesboro City Council proclamations

On Becoming a Friend of the Waynesboro Public Library

Our organization was formed in 1966 as a non-profit 501 (c) (3) association. Since then, we have played a key role in supporting the goals of the library.

In Addition to Regular Membership Consider...

Contributing in the memory of a friend or a loved one or honoring someone special with a Living Tribute.

Designating a gift to a specific part of the library such as local history and genealogy

Upgrading to a Life Membership

We need your help! Please join us as a friend of the Waynesboro Public Library. If you are already an annual member, renew your commitment or become a life member. Make a contribution beyond your membership dues. Volunteer your services.

If you can help, fill out and bring the attached form to the library, or mail it, with your stamp and check, to Friends of the Waynesboro Public Library, 600 S. Wayne Avenue, Waynesboro, VA 22980. Make checks payable to the Friends of the Waynesboro Public Library or "FOL."

Yes! I would like to join the Friends of the Library and/or make a special monetary contribution. [Please print]
